

St. Louis Oarsmen Who Figured in National Regatta.

Stuart Stickney of St. Louis De feated by Captain John L. Low of Cambridge by Four Points
With Two to Play.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Captain J. C. Lowe's visit to the University of Oxford and Cambridge English golfers to-day won the honors in the first international golf contest in the West, defeating Captain L. L. Boyd's all-Western team on the links of the Chicago Golf Club in the scheduled four-ball golf competition by the score of 3 and 2.

In the latter event National Amateur Champion Louis N. James, Western Amateur Champion Walter E. Egan and Veterans B. F. Cummings were the only regular winners of the match, which they succeeded in defeating their British Rivals.

Harvard Champion, H. Chandler Egan and Norman F. Hunter, the Oxonian, furnished the most exciting match of the contest. Five hundred enthusiasts who watched the play saw Hunter total 71 for the most difficult golf course in the world in the second round of the competition and practice matches by amateurs and professionals.

Hunter won his match handily by four up, going out in 35 and coming home in 36. The 36, which is no better than his former record, and only one stroke worse than the record of 35, made yesterday by G. G. Ellis of Oxford, and W. Hart of the University of Cambridge.

Not even British Champion Harry Vardon, who made the Chicago score in '14, played such remarkable golf today. The Englishman, who had been in the North Berwick, Scotland, and who was cheered by the largest group of professionals from his native land that ever watched an amateur event. Hunter, who had a fine day, and who was the only one of the difficult bogey score appeared so brilliant that the victory of the Englishman seemed a secondary matter.

MACHINELIKE PLAY.
Chandler Egan lost his match against the most machine-like golf that he ever encountered, being captured only two holes from the Oxonian.
Egan was out in 40 and coming in he equaled Hunter's score. Hunter frequently holed puts of 15 feet and seemed absolutely in control of the ball on the green. He never needed more than three putts, took only one putt on six greens and used thirty puts in the entire round. At the third tee he topped his drive, but recovered so well that he took the hole one under par. Egan was in a yearning mood for the eleventh hole, bogey five. Hunter played so brilliantly that he won it in 3.

Walter E. Egan, Exmoor and Harvard teammate of Chandler Egan, putted remarkably well and defeated H. B. Ellis of Oxford 3 up, 2 to play. Egan's medal score was 79.

J. A. T. Bramston, another Oxonian, and the only one of the visitors who clings to the old gutta ball, was a close second. He was 2 up on Ellis in 19 holes. Ormsburg was 2 up over his English rival at one time, but pure green work by Bramston secured the match at the eighteenth hole.

Captain John T. St. Louis defeated St. Nicholas of St. Louis, who had made a 75 in the morning, 4 up, 3 to play.

G. D. Barne, Oxford, gave a fine exhibition of the long game and defeated Rowell F. Mundy, Riverside, 4 up, 3 to play, Chas. pion Louis N. James and T. M. Hunter, the Oxonian, were all square in their match at the end of nine holes, and played a give-and-take game to the home hole, where the American won, 1 up.

M. W. Beveridge, Oxford, turned the course in 78 and defeated J. M. Sellers, Glenview, 5 up, 3 to play.

During the four-ball foursome play in the morning the glare of the sun affected the visitors' play somewhat, but they won three out of the five matches. The Hunters defeated the Esans, 1 up. Bramston and Beveridge took their match from Ormlston and Stickney, 1 up, while Ellis and Leather principally by the latter's score of 13.

To-morrow the Englishmen will practice on the Glenview golf course, where on Wednesday they will meet the all-Chicago team.

TION

...a good

ereby vene at

dealers

Statistics show that one-half the male population is weakened between the ages of 14 and 21, and that three-fourths are abnormally weak between the ages of 21 and 65. Excesses and abuses in early life produce a weakened condition of the organs of reproduction. Between the ages of 21 and 65 these organs should be strong and full, and the man should be able to perform his duty with the highest degree of satisfaction whenever called upon by nature. Diseases, abuses and excesses are the greatest obstacles to man's highest enjoyment of nature's precious gift. Drains, losses, varicose veins, backache, dizziness, nervousness, bashfulness and impotence are the signs that the organs are due to violations of nature's laws or to nondevelopment. Whatever may be the cause, come to us and get well. No matter what you have done, call and talk with us. We will give you a plan to follow and make a manly man of you, but will not put you into that condition where nature intended you to be.

a child of Nature—a healthy, robust man tropic men.
for examination or consultation, and if vide to Health and private book, as there are ally as well as if they were visiting our office
table, but are within the reach of every man are in search of health and honestly and s or write to us. Our office hours are from m., and Sundays from 9 to 12. All communi-

CO.,
N. W. COR. BROADWAY
& MARKET ST.,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

McCreery, right field.....	4	0	0	1	0
Wright, first base.....	4	0	0	0	0
Jacklich, catcher.....	4	0	0	0	0
Pitche, pitcher.....	4	0	0	0	0
Totals.....	16	0	0	1	0

When game was started, score was 4-0.

R. Louis.....	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	0
Brooklyn.....	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1

Left on bases—R. Louis 7, Brooklyn 7. Two errors by R. Louis. Three hits by Brooklyn. Three bases batted—B. Louis 1, Brooklyn 3. Stolen bases—Blackard 1. Stolen base—Blackard 1. Sacrifices hit—Dumleavy 1, Murphy 1. Sacrifices batted—Murphy 1. Time of game—One hour and forty minutes. Umpire—Hurst.

BOSTON VS. PITTSBURG, 4.

Visitors Lose Game Mainly by Numerous Errors.

Boston, Aug. 17.—Boston played an unusually clever game to-day, while Pittsburgh played looser. Carnahan was obliged to exert himself and Phillips well battered freely, receiving the weakest kind of support. Falkenberg substituted in the fifth inning, but his error helped Boston. Pittsburgh's errors continued. Attendance, 2,748.

Boston			Pittsburg
A	H	R	A	H	R
Dexter, C. . .	0	0	0	0	0
Wagner, W. .	1	3	1	2	1
Coolley, H. .	2	3	0	0	0
Wagner, W. .	1	3	1	2	1
Moran, C. . .	1	4	4	3	1
Wagner, W. .	1	3	1	2	1
Abbott, C. . .	1	3	1	2	1
Green, J. . .	1	3	1	2	1
Aubrey, S. . .	1	3	1	2	1
Totals	10	17	11	12	11
*Batted for Folkenburg			Totals
Pittsburg			in main landing
Two-base hits—Coolley			1. Tenney 1. Clarke

[illegible]

Jake Holtman Resigns.
REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Chicago, Aug. 17.—Jacob J. Holtman, star at the Hawthorne race track, tendered his resignation to the track management to-day. His resignation was not accepted by the management, but it is believed that he will be heard of no more.

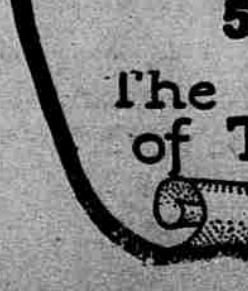

Mr. Holtman is said to have started the trouble leading up to Holtman's action. He, it is said, desired a better position drawing at the steeplechase races, when horses are in a bad race position, have little chance unless they are flying. It is claimed that Holtman was not worst of the drawing for position in a steeplechase race, but that he was not in the best formed. To this Holtman just a dead ear and he has been seen since. It is said that Corrihan had an even better horse.

for the
negotiations purchase
Jan
Bl

ter
lig-
The
guwill nu-is in at-get
The
ber-ind bet

50

The
of T

the purpose of ating the ase of a nes G.
aine

Cigar Greatest them All